

What happens after I receive an instrument?

- Instruments are given to children FREE OF CHARGE after the parent signs a borrow-basis contract
- For one year a Music Mission team member will conduct quarterly check-ups with both the parents and the student's teacher
- The check-ups are to ensure that the child is enjoying the instrument as well as taking care of it
- After one year if each of the check-ups go well the instrument becomes the child's to keep

Our Story

Our focus is the distribution of purchased or donated instruments to children who do not have access to them. Sometimes this is through a direct donation, or other times we will give the instruments to a teacher, school or organization. Everything we do is case-by-case basis, so do not hesitate to see if you qualify!

How do I apply?

- Email or call us, we would love to hear from you! Contact information is located on the back.
- Potential recipients may contact us directly, or may be nominated by family, friends, or teachers
- We then discuss the level of need for receiving an instrument or lessons
- Next, we may need to meet with the potential recipient and verify some references, as well as find the correct size of instrument for the recipient
- If you have your own instrument but are in need of lessons, we also provide scholarships

After the assessment is complete, we then put the child in line to receive an instrument and/or beginner lessons
