

The Hortonville Area School District and local school districts within the Fox Valley are working closely with the University of Wisconsin - Oshkosh Physical Education Department to offer the Adapted Motor Development Program (AMDP) - a new, motor development program for elementary and middle school students with disabilities.

WHAT: Developing Gross Motor Abilities and Object Control Skills Through Meaningful Physical Activity (11- week program)

- Individual Skills
- Group Activities
- Sports & Games
- 1:1 Supports
- 2:1 Supports, if needed

WHERE: UW-Oshkosh Campus (Albee Hall)

WHO: Elementary in Gym A and Middle School-Aged in Gym B

WHEN: February 22nd - May 9th(Thursday Nights: 5:30-7:00pm)

– No class on Spring Breaks for HASD or UWO

COST: FREE! We accept donations to increase our equipment opportunities!

HOW DO I SIGN-UP?

- STEP 1: Complete the Application
  - DOWNLOAD THE APPLICATION HERE
- STEP 2: Return completed application to:
  - Korey Kleinhans, HASD Adapted Physical Education Specialist ○ Email to: koreykleinhans@hasd.org
  - Mail to: Hortonville Middle School - Attn: Korey K. | 220 N. Warner Street | Hortonville, WI 54944

For More Information: Korey Kleinhans, HASD Adapted Physical Education Specialist (email koreykleinhans@hasd.org).