

AASD Elementary Career and Life Skills-Learning How to Learn

| Standard 1 Be Respectful~ Social and Cross- Cultural Skills | 4 Consistently The student consistently demonstrates respect and regularly contributes to the classroom by: Cooperating with others Listening attentively in class Treating peers and adults with respect Expressing feelings and emotions with thought and care Accepting ideas and opinions of others | 3 Usually The student usually respects and contributes to the classroom by: Cooperating with others Listening attentively in class Treating peers and adults with respect Expressing feelings and emotions with thought and care Accepting ideas and opinions of others | 2 Occasionally The student occasionally respects and contributes to the classroom by: Cooperating with others Listening attentively in class Treating peers and adults with respect Expressing feelings and emotions with thought and care Accepting ideas and opinions of others | 1 Rarely The student rarely respects and contributes to the classroom by: Cooperating with others Listening attentively in class Treating peers and adults with respect Expressing feelings and emotions with thought and care Accepting ideas and opinions of others |
|--|--|--|--|--|
| Standard 2 Be Responsible~ Productivity and Accountability | The student consistently takes ownership of work and actions in order to: Come prepared for class Use time wisely Use school property with care and respect Participate in discussions and activities Utilize feedback to advance learning | The student usually takes ownership of work and actions in order to: Come prepared for class Use time wisely Use school property with care Participate in discussions and activities Utilize feedback to advance learning | The student occasionally takes ownership of work and actions in order to: Come prepared for class Use time wisely Use school property with care Participate in discussions and activities Utilize feedback to advance learning | The student rarely takes ownership of work and actions in order to: Come prepared for class Use time wisely Use school property with care Participate in discussions and activities Utilize feedback to advance learning |